Frequently Asked Questions

General

1. Will this event be held in-person?

Yes. The 14th Los Angeles County Women's Leadership Conference will be held in-person at The Pasadena Convention Center (PCC) on Thursday, September 10, 2026. The event is a full-day event with registration opening at 7:00 am, the program starting at 8:30 am, and the event concluding at 4:40 pm.

2. Is this Conference open to the public or only for County employees?

The Conference is open to the public.

3. Will there be a virtual or live streaming component to the Conference?

We will not have a live stream or a virtual component to the Conference. Recordings of the Conference will not be available after the event.

4. Can I still register?

Yes! Interested attendees can purchase tickets at Eventbrite.

5. Does the Conference have assigned seating?

General admission seating is not assigned and will be first come, first served when the doors open. General admission seating is not reserved throughout the day; your seating may change from the morning to afternoon general session.

Reserved group tables are the only option to reserve seating and include the purchase of a table with 10 attendees. Attendees sitting at reserved tables will have their table assignments on their name badge.

6. Will meals be provided at the event?

We will have a continental breakfast provided from 7:00 am – 8:30 am, plated lunch in the ballroom, and afternoon refreshments. Coffee will also be available. Vegetarian, vegan, and gluten free options will be available.

7. What do I need to know before the day of the Conference?

Follow us on Instagram & X @LACWomenLeaders to get the latest updates and tips! There will be lots of activities and social media games for attendees to win prizes. We will also have professional headshot photographers for attendees, so make sure you come camera-ready!

Other items to bring:

- Smart Phone to access the program, participate in games, and to take pictures
- Phone charger so your phone is ready to take pictures with your colleagues and new friends
- Reusable water bottle to stay hydrated!
- Notebook and pen to jot down all the knowledge and inspiring messages from our speakers
- Comfortable shoes. The Conference will take place within the Pasadena Convention Center between two buildings, the Ballroom and Conference Center Lower Level. Conference Center Lower Level will be one floor down; the elevator and stairs are available but be ready to put your steps in!

Attire & Weather

What is the dress code for the event?

The dress code for the Conference is business casual/professional.

Pasadena is expected to be warm and mostly sunny on Thursday, September 10, with temperatures around 87–90°F during the day. We'll be indoors for all sessions, but keep in mind you will need to walk outdoors between the two buildings for breakout sessions. Please dress accordingly, consider layers, and remember your sunscreen.

Parking

Is parking included in the registration fee? And where can I park?

Parking is not included in your registration fee. PCC has limited self-parking in its structure for $18-22 daily max. There are nearby parking garages for $12 daily max. We encourage attendees to carpool, rideshare, or take public transportation. Parking prices may vary.

Health & Safety

What are the COVID protocols for this event?

We will be following the current safety protocols provided by PCC and the County's Health Orders at the time of the event. At this time, it is not required to wear a mask or show proof of vaccination/negative COVID test.

If you're not feeling well, please take care of yourself and stay home. Your health and well-being come first.
